At Petbacker, we are all dog lovers ourselves, so we understand how stressful can be thinking where your dog will stay when you need to go out. Dog Boarding Kennels may not always be a suitable option as they can often be far away, overcrowded, or able to manage the individual needs of your dog. Fortunately, Petbacker makes the process to find a local pet sitting in easy and without stress. Our Pet Sitters every pass through a rigorous verification process and when they offer the boarding of the dog, they also include photos of their home environment so that you can really see where your dog will stay. Every sitter is individually verified by our trusted and security team and also have reviews from other pet owners on their profiles. Above all, you can trust that you will love your dog as much as you do during their dog boarding stay. The advantages of using a sitter sitter is that your dog will remain in an environment similar to what is provided at home and get a lot of pampering and attention. On top of this, our friendly dog boarding sitters are very flexible and will happily follow any routine, special instructions or requirements that your dog can have. This is important for dogs as they can be a bit of discomfort to be away from home for the first time, so having a routine and a family environment (like another house in) will make the experience of boarding Very positive dog for them. If your dog is a sofa potato and would prefer to hang inside all day, your petbacker sitter will happily indulge them with a tummy stubbery bag during their dog boarding stay. Or if your dog is more active and prefers to go ahead every day and chase a ball, your pet sitter accommodate that too! Think of the dog boarding with a PetBacker sitter as a chance for your dog to have his own vacation. PetBacker sitters charges a reasonable rate which includes daily upgrades, unlimited pampering and game time. This means you don't have to worry about the price or pay extra for those services.
