GTA Online is a multiplayer experience packaged with almost seven years of updates. It is a large and complicated game with an absolutely vertiginous series of vehicles, companies and activities to check. Curled, you too are sharing the world with a maximum of 29 other players, which deals with getting used. Online GTA will eat all hours as you want to insert yourself, with profound progression systems, loads of expensive properties to buy and tons of vehicles to collect. During the years, spent a nice few hours with GTA online, and wanted to share our advice for how the newcomers ââ can play without having a bad time. I hope you will find this useful.1. Find some friends, get used to the game and increase your rank (picture credit: rockstar games) key with with Online find friends to which you can regularly enjoy playing. This makes so many activities in the game easier, more profitable and more fun. Playing GTA online is possible, but it is half of the experience in many ways. When you start GTA online, create a character, do a tutorial and are unleashed in Los Santos. GTA 5's Epic giveaway comes with the criminal Enterprise Starter Pack, a bumper section of spikes to start in GTA online. This gives you a number of free items, including a suite of weapons and vehicles to use. Rockstar Games explains what comes with the package here. Note, however, that we have played GTA online for a long time before this package existed, and we can not fully guarantee how this affects the first part of the online experience. You also get an executive office, a GunRunning Bunker and a biker gang hiding place This offers various ways to make you more money from the beginning. You can access the activities in each of these locations from the laptop that you will find within each building. The free edition of GTA Epic will also grant you a million dollars in-game free currency, although it will take a week or so to appear in your account. We think you should spend $200,000 of that on an in-game apartment that has the ability to start heists, and we will explain why below. In terms of aspiring vehicles, military chopper the buzzer is good to point. This costs $1.75 million, so you will need to save a little, but it will quickly take you around the map and quickly provide the fire from the sky. There are reasons why I would like to increase your rank (i.e. your level) quickly when you start GTA online. Climbing some ranks will lead to characters such as Simeon and Lamar by contacting you with missions via the phone, offering you additional ways to unlock money and RP, the version of GTA Experience Points. Weapons are also linked to your rank. If you want to buy a Micro SMG from a weapons store, for example, you must first be ranked 5. So it's worth trying to get over the precocious levels. GTA Online Heists are a good way to make money, and the funniest part of the game (credit image: rockstar games) GTA has five heists (including a heist tutorial), and if you are new to the game, you owe it to yourself to control them. They are like heists in the main GTA 5 main story, only they involve four players participating in a mission at the same time. They still represent the best GTA experiences you can have in any game in the series. To access listi, you must join another player, or reach level 12 in-game and host yours. Honestly, you will want three more friends to play with heists (puoi Matchmake, but it's precarious, and play all four of the heists with the same crew you net a paymentHaving hopefully not too much a challenge if you know other people who have grabbed the game for free and have a decent PC. A decent PC. One of your group of four will need what called a high-end apartment in GTA GTA which apparently doesn't come with the criminal enterprise startup package. That's how you host a heist. You can buy it by bringing your in-game phone, going to the internet browser and clicking on money and services. Dynasty 8 is the online store that sells in-game apartments.The cheapest apartment to present a room in Heist is the Dog Worth, which is $200,000, easily covered by the free money provided by Rockstar with this version of the game. Again, to host a heist, you must be rank 12 or higher. It's not a bad idea for all players involved to at least reach grade 12, to ensure that everyone depends on the challenge of these large-scale missions. With three more players in your crew, you can enter Heist's room in your new apartment and start these threads of quests. Each heist is divided into separate setup stages with an ending and you get a bonus payout for the first time for finishing it all (and another for finishing them in order). Note that every part of Heist has a setup cost, which you can easily afford if you haven't skipped all your millions of dollars in-game currency at the same time. You can easily make this refund configuration by completing each one. When you get deeper into the game, you can think of taking the doomsday day and the diamond even the heists, but for now tackling the basic heists is all you need to worry about. Repeating them on greater difficulties earns you bigger payouts. If you are a solo player, heists are a less reliable source of income, and you could try this excellent Reddit Guide on GTA Gaming alone. Don't worry with competitive modes unless you are paying double experience and cash (picture credit: rockstar games) GTA online has so many competitive modes online (called opponent mode), but they are rarely as fun as doing activities in the open world with friends. However, there are reasons you'll want to play, especially if you're new to the game. Each week, RockStar usually highlights a certain opponent mode with double the prizes (not this week, as it is the double bonus for GunRunning sales quests). This will allow you to quickly increase your rank and make some money while taking part. Look at the messages on your phone inviting you to opponent mode and click on them to enter a matchmaking screen. Again, it's still worth concentrating when the payout is doubled. Don't burn yourself on PvP, because it's not the best part of online GTA, although some of the modes can be quite fun. You can have your cars delivered at any time (Image credit: Rockstar Games) This is far from a feature of the title, but it is helpful to know in case which you miss the explanation of how it works. Bring your phone, click the mechanical name in your contacts, call it and you can have one of your stored vehicles brought to you, usually a few steps from where you are standing. You will use this countless times while playing GTA to save time and worth knowing. A 5. The strangers will provethe pain, so turn on the passive mode (Image credit: Rockstar) Griefing is almost cooked in the design of GTA Online. If you want to explore Los Santos without other players who can spoil it for you, press 'M' on your keyboard to bring what is called the Interactions menu. From here, scroll down to passive mode and turn it on. This will prevent players from shooting at you. Note, however, that a lot of GTA Online activities require you to play on a public server and activate Passive Mode off. Disrupting the fun of other players is the lifeblood of GTA Online, and you end up doing it yourself, too. That's why it's such a relief on those rare occasions when you find an empty server, so you can make some money without the threat of someone who aviation you mid-mission. It's a temporary fix, then, but it will do the act of exploring the world a little less irritating in the first few hours with the game. 6. Resist buying shark cards unless you get deep into the game (picture credit: Rockstar Games) Everything in GTA Online can be paid with in-game currency, but earning money is time consuming in this game, especially if you want to buy some of the more fancier vehicles that cost millions of dollars in-game dollars. Rockstar sells in-game currency in the form of shark cards, giving you a quick injection of money to get the thing you want. You don't need to buy these to have a good time in GTA Online, though. If you throw hour after hour at GTA Online, you can perhaps justify spending a little every so much on that car, business or apartment you want, especially since you got the game for free from Epic. Ultimately, though, buying digital currency is unlikely to enhance your experience with the game unless you are playing it all the time. 7. Focus on the activities you like (Picture Background: Future Games/Rockstar) When you start GTA Online, it can take a little adjustment to the new status quo. There is so much to do on the map and you are constantly pinged with new activities on your phone. Not everything in the game is great, but you don't have to play everything to have fun. Owning a nightclub isn't as fun as it should be, for example, although the real DJs playing there are a fresh twist. Owning a hangar is really clean, especially with some of the fresh customizable aircraft available, but it's a very expensive search that shouldn't be your priority in advance. Some of the vehicles you can buy look impressive, but earning enough currency to unlock them can take hours and hours. Deer are the clear standout in GTA Online in terms of early gaming fun effects. Some of the different companies that you can buy have fun activities associated with them depending on what they are (and this free should give a lot of companies to sample), but there is also a lot of driving from one side of the map to another for so many of the missions in the game. Try not to fall into a scheme where you feel like you're stuck in a one credit: Rockstar) In recent years, Rockstar has become increasingly generous in giving free GTA money, just for access during a certain period of time. Earlier this year, he gave away $2 million just for turning the game on twice in two weeks. Keep an eye on Rockstar Games' social channels for similar promotions. They're not that regular, but they usually happen a couple of times a year, and if you're new to the game, you'll have enough money to make a difference.You can have them build and buy some stupid vehicle you really want.Rockstar is giving away $500,000 to all players who sign up in May 2020.
