California vehicle registration refund form

SECTION VEICOLI CODE 42230-42235 42230. any charge that a claim submitted under this code is accompanied by a fee, except for a professional license application accompanied by a fee referred to in Article 9262, 9262.5, 11309, or 11820, or a license application of the duplicated driver, as required by law, and the application is refused or rejected, the fees are returned to the applicant, unless, each time a claim is legally subjected to the first set of licenses42232. the application for reimbursement is submitted to the department in a format prescribed by the department within three years from the date of payment of the incorrect or excessive fee and must identify the payment made and indicate the reasons for which the payment is considered to be excessive or erroneous. 42233. (a) each time a fee or a penalty subject to reimbursement under Article 42231 after the application has not been paid in the state treasury, the department refunds the fee or penalty. (b) whenever a tax or a penalty is subject to reimbursement under Article 42231 after the application referred to in Article 10901 of the code of revenue and taxes has been paid in the state treasury to the credit, in whole or in part, of the vehicle license account of the tax fund of the transport (hereinafter referred to in this section as the vehicle license account of the motor vehicle.) or to the credit, in whole or in part, of the motor accountto be due from both accounts, the director may submit only one request with the state controller, drafted against the engine vehicle account covering the amount of both refunds, and the state controller must therefore draw his mandate on the engine vehicle account. at least quarterly, the director certifies to the status regulator the amounts paid by the engine vehicle account that are duly charged to the account of the engine vehicle license fee supported by such details as the status regulator may require. at the time of the order of the state controller, the amounts so requested will be transferred from the account of the motor vehicle license to the credit of the vehicle account of the engine. e) this section is an appropriation of all the amounts necessary to refund and refund any excess or incorrect charges and penalties collected under this code and the procedure prescribed in this Article for refunds is considered in accordance with the requirements of the government code relating to the reimbursement of excessive or erroneous expenses or penalties. 42235. Whenever the department collects any fee that is excessive or not legally due and the application for reimbursement of the fee is not deposited within the time prescribed by the law because the applicant has not received from the department a registration certificate for the vehicle on which the refund of the fee is required, the director has the right to authorize payment of a refund in such case on a correct demonstration of the applicant who has the power to authorize payment of a refundin the refund application is due to the failure to receive the registration certificate within the legal period allowed to apply for reimbursement of fees.
