Here are some guidelines for sikh minority students which they should know regarding DU Admission 2018. DU Admission 2018: Know How To Calculate Best Four Best of four calculation for DU Admission 2018 in Honours programs (Arts/Humanities) Subjects: 1 Language, 3 best academic/elective subjects from list A. Out of 3 academic/elective subjects, one should be concerned subject in which you seek admission. Otherwise there will be deduction of 2.5%. Please note that all subjects that you include to calculate best of four, should have at least 70% theory component and 30% practical component. Otherwise, Delhi University converts marks of theory and practical only to 70% and 30%, respectively on pro rata basis. Then it uses new marks in order to calculate Best Four. List A Best of four calculation for DU Admission 2018 in B.Com (Honours) / B.Com Subjects: 1 Language from Part 1 of List C1, 3 best subjects from Part 2 of List C1, OR Subjects: 1 Language from Part 1 of List C1, and any combination of subjects out of Part 2 of List C1, List C2 or any other subject (not listed either in List C1 or List C2). In this case, DU deducts marks in following manner: 1% for each subject you include from list C2, 2.5% for each subject (not in C1 or C2). List C1 List C2 Best of four calculation for DU Admission 2018 in BA Subjects: 1 Language (core/elective/functional), Any 3 elective subjects [for DU Admission 2018, there will be deduction of 5% if you change stream], 1 non-listed (List A) without deduction. If you seek admission in DU BA Vocational program, then you can select related vocational subjects. This is treated at par with academic/elective subjects and upto two vocational subjects, which are in relationship with the programme of study. If you opt for Modern Indian Language (MIL) (except hindi) as a subject, then you get advantage of upto 10% in those colleges where that college offers MIL.
